

Conflict
Attorney
Panel

Now Contracting: CAP Attorneys

What is Conflict Attorney Panel (CAP):

CAP is an independent and ethically separate division of the Office of the Public Defender and our attorneys do not share information or otherwise interact with attorneys from the Public Defender or the Alternate Defender's Office. Individual private attorneys that contract with the government and are appointed by the Superior Court of California, County of Stanislaus to provide indigent defense because of a conflict declared by the Office of the Public Defender or Alternate Defenders Office or other court order. All obligations to protect the confidences of the client and zealously represent his or her interests are scrupulously maintained and respected.

Our CAP attorneys may take cases within these areas:

- Class 1 - 6 Cases
- Juvenile Delinquency Cases
- Civil Matters

CAP Attorneys do not need to have a practice within Stanislaus County, but will need to be able to make court appearances as needed.

To apply:

1. Email CAP@stancounty.com with your interest
2. Complete and return contract for review by CAP Director

Accepting applications from Attorneys with every level of experience and expertise

Contract as a Conflict Panel Attorney in Stanislaus County and make a meaningful impact in the pursuit of social justice.

- By advocating for those in need, you'll contribute to ensuring fairness and equality within the legal system
- You will have the opportunity to gain criminal trial experience in the court
- Great way to supplement your successful law practice

Interested in how you can become a contracted CAP Attorney?

Join us for a info meeting every first Thursday of the month (starting October 3rd, 2024) from 11am-12pm

